

LITERARY NOTES.

Hawthorne's "Blithedale Romance" is out of print in England, and complaint is made that copies of it cannot be had.

Henry James's "Confidence" and Joseph Cook's lectures on "Labor" are promised for issue on Saturday by Houghton, Osgood & Co.

Dr. Howard Crosby's Yale lectures will soon appear in book form at A. D. F. Randolph & Co.'s under the title "The Christian Preacher."

Professor Dowden's "Southery" in the English Men of Letters Series, will be ready at Harper & Brothers' this week. "Bunyan" from the pen of Mr. Froude will follow next.

Four volumes are ready of the American Book Exchange edition of Gibbon's "Rome," and the fifth, which will be delayed somewhat by necessary changes in the index, is already far along in the press.

Four volumes also have been published of the "Library of Universal Knowledge," and the fifth will probably be out in the middle of the month.

The Rev. Sheldon Jackson, a Presbyterian missionary of large experience in the West, once visited Alaska, and while visiting several mission stations there gave special attention to the people and country for the purpose of writing a book. This volume will see the light during the coming season as a 12mo., with 100 illustrations, from the house of Dodd, Mead & Co.

A new volume of sermons and addresses by Henry Morley Panceh is in preparation by R. Worthington. It will have an introduction by the late Dr. Gilbert Haven. The same publisher has a volume out from the Boston plates of the well-known "Yours Under the Sun" and "The Mysterious Island." There are illustrations in all the volumes, "The Mysterious Island" having twenty-four.

The report published several months ago that a volume of uncanceled and unpublished poems by the late Charles Turner, brother of the Poet Laureate, would be sent to the press, is confirmed by The Athenaeum, which says his literary executors are preparing such a volume. Besides several uncanceled sonnets, there is a number of poems, including one on the subject of "Cicero," it will contain a restoration of the marginal annotations made by Coleridge upon his own copy of the poet's first work.

The "Cyclopaedia of British Poetry," which Mr. Eps Sargent is editing for Harper & Brothers, will contain a thousand pages or more. Thus far Mr. Sargent has read the proofs of about 150 pages. In reply to a question, he writes that great pains are being taken to make the work accurate as well as comprehensive, and to give the best specimens of all the poets represented.

"Justice" he says, "will be done to the obscure minor poets" who have produced one or two great lyrical pieces which the world does not willingly let die.

Charles Dudley Warner's essay on Washington Irving, which will serve as an introduction to the new Geoffrey Crayon Edition of Irving's works, will appear also in a volume by itself accompanied by a paper, reprinted from The Atlantic for November, 1860, of some reminiscences of Irving by the late G. P. Putnam, besides the oration on Irving delivered by William Cullen Bryant in April, 1860. The "Sketch Book," which of old was much popular in the United States, has been reprinted with a foreword by Mr. C. L. Shorthouse, A. M., Harvard graduate, Principal.
